Aid Society Meets at New Parsonage

One of the most pleasant sessions of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Christian Church, held this year, (of which there have been many) was on Tuesday afternoon at the home of R. V. and Mrs. H. J. Brazelton. They were at home for the first time to the members of the Society and had urged a full attendance not only of the members but any friends who could meet with them, and the attendance was much beyond the average.

Although there was much work done everybody was in a distinctly social mode and the hours passed as if on wings. Just before time for adjournment the host and hostess served the party with delicious sandwiches and coffee and requested that each guest take her own plate back to the dining room, from whence she could go on a tour of inspection and see if they were pleased with the new parsonage. All agreed, on returning, that they were more than delighted with the entire arrangement and were glad that they had had a part in the new work.

Miss Alice Miller, who is home on a furlough from her mission work in Japan, was one of the visitors of the afternoon and it was a delight for her old friends and former pupils to have her in their midst again.

La So Con

Miss Mary Mothershead entertained the La So Con at her home on South Main Street Tuesday in honor of Miss Rose Fox, who will leave in a few days for her home in Louisville, Ky. Miss Fox has been a faithful and charming member and will be missed from the society. The hostess furnished an interesting program, a part of which was some sketch work which proved to be very entertaining and enjoyed. A delightful salad course was served and all present had an enjoyable evening.

OUR HERO OF 1913

(If The Price of Oil Continues to Rise)

The boy stood on the swaying deck
When all but he had fled.
(The "Eagle Eye" had bravely jumped
When he saw the markers red)
With grim set lips and steady hand
He grasped the "Tallow Pot,"
And said "I'll save this valve oil,
Tho' I perish on the spot."
'Ere he could save himself they crashed,
Then all was deathly still.
His lifeless hands still held the cans,
At the foot of Bakers Hill.
The Eagle Eye approached him there,
His very soul was thrilled.
He closely scrutinized the cans
And not a drop was spilled
He gently brushed the tangled hair,
From off his pallid brow.
And said "I never knew your worth,
Until I found you now"
"No more we'll double" 4 mile hill"
(For steam you were a fright)
But thrice, blest may your heaven be,
You saved my oil tonight.
Now fireboys, if ever you
Should for such glory thirst.
Forget the loving ties that bind,
And save the oil cans first.

IT GROWS HAIR

Here are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk

In all our experience with hair tonics there is one that has done more toward gaining our confidence than any other. We really believe this remedy, known as Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so superior to other preparations that we offer it to you with our personal and unqualified promise that if you use it and it doesn't prove in every way satisfactory to you, we will, upon your mere request at our store, return to you the money you paid us for it.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts so effectively destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It acts to penetrate to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, come back and tell us and get your money back. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Practical Aid for the Poor.
Miss Elisabeth Ross has been appointed manager of the household service office, which has just been established in Jamaica Plain, Mass., by the Women's Municipal League. The enterprise is patterned after the Brattleboro Mutual Aid Association, a neighborhood service which affords mutual aid for the sick. The plan is to furnish at cost competent nurses, to educate people along sanitary lines and to furnish employment for women and girls competent as household helpers.

Fulfillment.
He (in a restaurant with his best girl)—You don't know how happy you have made me by saying "Yes," darling. It will be my dearest wish to make earth a paradise for you and to fulfill your wishes before you utter them. Waitress, bring a portion of cheese for the young lady.—File-gende Blaetter.

1913 Models of the Indian Motorcycle

Following the "14 Important Improvements" of 1912, the Hendee Mfg. Company announce no less than a dozen additional new features in their 1913 model of the Indian Motorcycle.

By far the most significant feature of the new machine is the Cradle Spring Frame. It is something entirely new, a radical departure from the conventional bicycle and recent motorcycle systems of "springing." Briefly, the new device consists of the application to the rear wheel of the Indian Cradle Spring device as used on the front fork for the past three years.

Extending back horizontally from the frame joint cluster under the saddle, flanking the rear mud guard, are two 7-leaf Chrome Vanadium steel springs. The "C" shaped curls at the rear end of these springs are connected by stays to bell-crank on which the rear axle is hung. The forward end of the rear fork has a hinge joint which enables the rear wheel to yield to imperfections of road surface. All shocks are completely absorbed by the leaf springs. The rear wheel can go through almost any vertical motion without affecting the body of the machine.

Marriage License Twelve Years Old.
Judge Martin of the municipal court married a couple whose license had been obtained twelve years ago. Christopher C. Owens obtained a license to marry Miss Emma Brandy from County Clerk Philip Knopf on August 13, 1900. "We had a quarrel," he told Judge Martin, "and we didn't see each other for about eleven years. Recently we patched up the trouble."—Chicago Tribune.

Lived 86 Years in One House.
Mrs. Williams, widow of the Rev. Samuel Williams, pastor of the Congregational church in the village of Cripplestyle for forty years, has died in the house in which she was born and had lived all of her eighty-six years. During this long period she had not slept away from the house more than about six times.—London Daily Mail.

ARMAGEDDON OF THE SCRIPTURES

Stirring Presentation of Compelling Events.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S VIEWS.

Churches of All Denominations and the Civil Powers of Earth Are About to Unite in Common Cause—Powerful Influence Preparing for the Battle of Armageddon—A Reign of Anarchy Will Be the Result of the Warfare Until the Messiah Takes Control.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded to the limit today to hear Pastor Russell's discourse on the "Battle of Armageddon." His text was: "He gathered them together unto a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."

(Revelation xvi, 16.) The speaker said: Armageddon in the Hebrew signifies the "Hill of Megiddo," or Mount of Destruction. It was famous as a battlefield in Old Testament times.

The Lord has seen fit to associate the name Armageddon, with the great controversy between Truth and Error, right and wrong, God and Mammon, with which this age will close, perish, and the New Age of Messiah's glory be ushered in. He has purposely used highly symbolical figures of speech in the last book of the Bible, evidently with a view to hiding certain important truths until the due time for their revelation. But even in the due time, the Bible assures us, "None of the wicked shall understand" (Daniel xii, 9, 10)—none who are out of heart harmony with God—but only the wise of His people—the "wise virgin" class of the Master's parable.

I have long avoided presentation of my understanding of our text and its context. I take it up now by request and because I believe it is due time to be understood. I disclaim any special inspiration. In some particulars my views agree with those of other Bible students, and in other respects they disagree. Each hearer must use his own judgment, do his own Bible study, and reach his own conclusions.

Kindly remember that I am not responsible for the figures of speech used by the Lord. My interpretations do indeed constitute a terrible arraignment of institutions which we have all revered and which embrace good people, of good words and good works. God's saints in these various institutions, being comparatively few, are ignored when systems as a whole are dealt with in prophecy.

The Dragon, Beast, False Prophet.
Our context tells us that three impure spirits (teachings) will go forth from the mouths of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, and these three will be in accord, and symbolically the doctrines are represented by "frogs." These three doctrines are to have a mighty influence throughout the civilized earth. They are to gather the kings and their armies to the great Battle of Armageddon.

The ecclesiastical kings and princes, and their retinues of clergy and faithful adherents, will be gathered in solid phalanx—Protestant and Catholic. The kings and captains of industry, and as many as can be influenced by them, will be gathered to the same side. The political kings and princes, with all their henchmen and retainers, will follow in line on the same side. The financial kings and merchant princes, and all whom they can influence by the most gigantic power ever yet exercised in the world, will join the same side, according to this prophecy.

These "doctrines of demons," represented by the "frogs," will lead many noble people in this great army to assume an attitude quite contrary to their preference. For a time the wheels of liberty and progress will be turned backward and medieval restraints will be considered necessary for self-preservation—for the maintenance of the present order of things.

In giving this interpretation, it is necessary for us to indicate what is symbolized by the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet. Bible students of nearly all denominations agree with us that the "Dragon" of Revelation represents the purely Civil Power. Protestant interpreters generally agree that the "Beast like a leopard" (Revelation xiii, 2) represents the Papacy. But fewer still, we fear, will be ready to support our view that Protestantism is the "Image of the Beast" (Revelation xiii, 15) in our context given another name, "the False Prophet." We urge no one to accept our interpretation nor shall we think hard of any who refuse it. We will neither slander nor otherwise injure them now, nor threaten them with eternal torture. They have the same right to their views that I have, and the same right to make them known to others. And I, for one, will be very glad to consider any thing which opponents may set forth as their interpretations of our text.

"Unclean Spirits Like Frogs."

The symbolisms of Scripture, right by understood, are always forceful. When the Holy Spirit used a "frog" to symbolically represent certain doctrines or teachings, we may be sure the true application will fit well. A frog has a sage look, a wise look. It swells itself up in an apparent endeavor to impress the beholder. Its great mouth well represents its chief power, used to croak.

Applying these symbols, we learn that an evil spirit, influence, teaching, will come from the Protestant churches federated, from the Church of Rome, and from the Civil authorities, all in full agreement. The spirit of all will be boastful; an air of superior wisdom and knowledge will be proudly assumed—all will croak in harmony. All will tell of dire results that would follow, involving the interests of both the present and the future life, if their counsel be not followed. However conflicting the creeds, the differences will be ignored in the general proposition that nothing ancient must be disturbed, or looked into, or repudiated.

The Divine authority of the Church, and the Divine right of kings, aside from the Church, will not be allowed to conflict. Any persons or teachings in conflict with these boastful and unscriptural claims will be branded as "frogs" speaking from pulpits and platforms and through the religious and secular press. The nobler sentiments of some will be strangled by the philosophy of the same evil spirit which spoke through Caliph, the high priest, respecting Jesus. As Caliph declared it expedient to commit a crime in violation of justice, human and Divine, to be rid of Jesus and His teachings, so this "frog" spirit will approve of every violation of principle necessary to their self-protection.

The croaking of these "frog" spirits or doctrines will gather the kings and princes, financial, political, religious and industrial into one great army. The spirit of fear, inspired by the croakings of these "frogs," will scourge the passions of otherwise good and reasonable men to fury, desperation. In their blind following of these evil spirits, evil doctrines, they will be ready to sacrifice life and everything on the altar of what they mistakenly suppose is justice, truth and righteousness, under a Divine arrangement.

For a brief time, as we understand the Scriptures, these combined forces of Armageddon will triumph. Free speech, free mails, and other liberties which have come to be the very breath of the masses in our day, will be ruthlessly shut off under the plea of necessity, the glory of God, the commands of the Church, etc. All will seem to be serene, until the great social explosion in our context described as the "great earthquake." An "earthquake," in symbolic language, signifies social revolution, and the declaration of the context is that none like unto it ever before occurred. (Revelation xvi, 18, 19.) Jesus described it as a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation.—Matthew xxiv, 21.

The Lord Will Gather Them.
The false, frog-like teachings will gather together into one host, the great, the rich, the wise, the learned and the kings of the earth, to battle. At this juncture Divine Power will step forward, and our text tells us that HE shall gather the marshaled hosts to Armageddon—the Mountain of Destruction. The very thing which they sought to avert by their union, federation, etc., will be the very thing they will hasten. Other Scriptures tell us that God will be represented by the Great Messiah, and that He will be on the side of the masses. Thus we read in Daniel xii, 1: "At that time shall Michael [the Godlike One—Messiah] stand up"—assume authority. He will take possession of His Kingdom in a manner little looked for by many of those who erroneously have been claiming that they were His Kingdom, and authorized by Him to reign in His name and in His stead.

Jesus declared, "His servants ye are unto whom ye render service." Some may be rendering service to Satan and to error, who claim to be rendering service to God and to righteousness; and some of these may be serving ignorantly, as did Saul of Tarsus, who "very thought that he did God a service" in persecuting the Church. The same principle holds true reversely. As an earthly king does not hold himself responsible for the moral character of each soldier who fights in his battles, so the Lord does not vouch for the moral character of all who will enlist and fight on His side of any question. "His servants they are to whom they render service," whatever the motive or object prompting them.

The same principles will apply in the coming Battle of Armageddon. God's side of that battle will be the people's side, and the very nondescript host, the people, will be pitted at the beginning of the battle. Anarchists, Socialists, and hot-headed radicals of every school of reason and unreason, will be in the forefront of that battle. The majority of the poor and the middle class prefer peace at almost any price. A comparatively small number, God's consecrated people, will at heart be longing for Messiah's Kingdom. These will bide the Lord's time and wait patiently for it; they will be of good courage, knowing the outcome outlined in the "more sure word of prophecy," to which they have done well to take heed, "as unto a light shining in a dark place until the Day dawn."—1 Peter i, 19.

The masses will be restless of their restraints, but will be conscious of their own weakness as compared to the kings and princes, financial, religious and political, which will then hold sway. Besides, the masses have no sympathy with anarchy. They realize truly that the worst form of government is better than none. The masses will seek relief through the ballot and peaceful re-adjustment of earth's affairs for the elimination of evil, for the placing of monopolies and utilities and the supplies of nature in the hands of the people for the public good. The crisis will be reached when the hitherto upholders of law shall become violators of the law and resistors of the will of the majority as expressed by the ballot. Fear for the future will lead the well-meaning masses to desperation; and anarchy will result when Socialism fails.

The Cloud's Silver Lining.

Horrible would be this outlook for the future did we not have the infallible Word of God assuring us of a glorious outcome! Divine Wisdom has withheld until our day the great knowledge and skill which is at the same time breeding millionaires and discontents. Had God lifted the veil a thousand years sooner, the world would have lined up for its Armageddon a thousand years sooner. But that would have been too soon for the Divine purpose, because Messiah's Kingdom is to be the great Thousand-Year-Sabbath of the world's history. God in kindness veiled our eyes until the time when the gathering to Armageddon would immediately precede Messiah's taking to Himself His great power, and beginning His reign.—Revelation xi, 17, 18.

"Send Them Strong Delusions."

St. Paul wrote prophetically of our time, that it would be one of serious trial and testing to many professing to be Christians. The reason for this he states—they received not the Truth in the love of it. (II Thessalonians ii, 10, 11.) They preferred their own erroneous theories, the Apostle explains, and therefore God will give them over to a "strong delusion," and let them believe the lie which they preferred, and let them suffer for missing the Truth which they did not love. Thus they will be in the condemned host, "fighting against God," because of their lack of love for the Truth.

It is sad to say that we all as Christians have been laboring under a thorough delusion respecting God's Plan. We have claimed that Christ set up His Church in Kingdom power, and that the Church has been reigning on the earth as His representative. On the strength of this delusion, Jews and heretics have been persecuted to death as opponents to Christ's Kingdom. All the while we thoughtlessly repeated the Lord's prayer: "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as in Heaven." We knew that the Redeemer said that He would come again to make us His Bride and joint-heirs; but we ignored the Scriptures. We were drunk, as the Scriptures symbolically say, "all nations were drunk" with the false doctrine. It is this false doctrine that will constitute the "frog" spirit which soon will begin to croak and to prepare for Armageddon.

The Bible presentation is that the world is a section of the universe in rebellion against Divine authority, under the captivity of Satan and his associated fallen angels. By Divine grace Jesus has already "tasted death for every man," and the merit of that sacrifice must, eventually, grant Adam and his posterity a full, fair opportunity for the attainment of everlasting life. All who thus seek the Divine program and are walking in the light may know something at least respecting the "times and seasons." These brethren "are not in darkness, that that day [that that battle of Armageddon] should overtake" them "as a thief"—unaware.

Armageddon Not Yet but Soon.

For forty years the Armageddon forces have been mustering for both sides of the conflict. Strikes, lockouts and riots, great and small, have been merely incidental skirmishes as the belligerent parties crossed each other's paths. Court and Army scandals in Europe, Insurance, Trust and Court scandals in America, have shaken public confidence. Dynamite plots, charged by turns on employees and on employers, have further shaken confidence and tended to make each distrustful of the other. Bitter and angry feelings on both sides are more and more manifest. The lines of battle are daily becoming more distinctly marked. Nevertheless Armageddon cannot yet be fought. Other matters intervene, according to prophecy.

Gentle times have still two years to run. The "Image of the Beast" of our context must yet receive life—power. The Image must be transformed from a mere mechanism to a living force. Protestant Federation realizes that its organization will still be futile unless it receive vitalization—unless its clergy directly or indirectly shall be recognized as possessed of apostolic ordination and authority to teach. This prophecy indicates will come from the two horned beast, which, we believe, symbolically represents the Church of England. High-handed activities of Protestantism and Catholicism, operating in conjunction for the suppression of human liberties, await this vivifying of the Image. This may come soon, but Armageddon cannot precede it, but must follow—perhaps a year after it, according to our view of the Prophecy.

Still another thing intervenes: Although the Jews are gradually flowing into Palestine, gradually obtaining control of the land of Canaan, and although reports say that already nineteen millionaires are there, nevertheless prophecy requires an evidently larger number of wealthy Hebrews to be there before the Armageddon crisis be reached. Indeed we understand that "Jacob's trouble" in the Holy Land will come at the very close of Armageddon. Then Messiah's Kingdom will begin to be manifested. Thereafter Israel in the land of promise will gradually rise from the ashes of the past to the grandeur of prophecy. Through its Divinely appointed princes Messiah's Kingdom, all-powerful but invisible, will begin to roll away the course and to lift up mankind.

Illinois For Wilson

That Illinois was safely in the Wilson column was indicated early in the evening, but California, which had been claimed by the democrats shortly after the closing of the polls, wavered toward the progressive ranks.

After apparently holding Illinois for nearly forty-eight hours from the time the polls closed, Colonel Roosevelt lost its twenty-nine electoral votes late in the day, when the assembling of state-wide returns showed a definite victory for Governor Wilson.

Courage Ever in Demand.

"Not in clanging fights and desperate marches only is heroism to be looked for, but on every railway bridge and fireproof building that is going up today. On freight trains, on the decks of vessels, in cattle yards, on lumber rafts, among the firemen and the policemen, the demand for courage is incessant, and the supply never fails."—William James.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything."

I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but I dreaded it so that I began taking your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, R. R. No. 3, Murrayville, Ill.

CENTRAL RURAL SCHOOL FAVORED IN WISCONSIN

Abandonment of Isolated District School Advised by State Commission.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 31.—Abandon the isolated district school and establish a modern, properly equipped, hygienic central school is the program set for Wisconsin rural school districts by a commission of fifteen appointed by State Superintendent C. P. Cary to study the rural school problem.

By consolidation is meant the uniting of two or more school into one. As a rule the distance children are transported to school does not exceed five miles under this plan. The ideal country school is held to be a complete central school in each township to which all the children in that territory shall go.

The committee says the consolidated school should have a kindergarten, eight grades and a high school with a four-year course. It should be the center for the township library, lecture courses musical programs and other means for making country life more attractive and educational. Manual training and domestic science are essential.

Everywhere We Hear Good Reports of Doan's Kidney Pills

Earlington is no exception. Every section of the U. S. resounds with praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Thirty thousand persons are giving testimony in their home newspapers. The sincerity of these witnesses, the fact that they live so near, is the best proof of the merit of Doan's. Here's an Earlington case.

John W. Davenport, Earlington, Ky., says: "I still use Doan's Kidney trouble. The more I use this preparation the better I like it. You may continue publishing my former testimonial. I suffered from kidney trouble more than tongue can tell. My back was so sore and lame that I could not work for days at a time and the kidney secretions were scanty. There was a constant pain in my head that almost blinded me. I became dizzy, dark spots would float before my eyes and I would reel like a drunken man. Nothing did me any good until a fellow workman told me he had used Doan's Kidney Pills with success. I obtained a supply at the St. Bernard Mining Co. Incorporated and it was only a few weeks before they corrected my troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WOULD BEAUTIFY CAPITAL

First Step in Washington When Appraisers Begin Work

Washington, Oct. 26.—The first step toward beautifying the gateway to the nation's capital will be taken today when a board of appraisers makes its preliminary inspection of the nine and one-half acres between the Union station and the capital grounds.

It is planned to acquire the property and transform it into a great sweep of parking, studded with trees, flowers and fountains and stretching from the doors of the station up Capitol hill to the entrance of the Capitol itself.

Why Don't They Pay For It?

SOME TIME SINCE, says the editor of the Wellington (Kans.) News "we quit giving advertising to those who are able to pay. We have opportunities every day to give away space, but all of these fine chances are now declined with thanks. Several fair associations have furnished us with entertaining stories about their amusement enterprises, asking that we kindly give them several dollars' worth of space that others pay for.

Also there would be enclosed two complimentary tickets.

"Now we have tried complimentary tickets fried, stewed, on toast and smothered in onions, but found them unpalatable in every style. Chopped fine they might make good breakfast food, but have no chopper. And at the end of the week we are unable to unload them on the payroll the obstr. perous employees seem to prefer cash. And so much of the time in days ago the help got all the money, leaving the boss to subsist on complimentary tickets and commendatory resolutions. It's a poor diet, and we quit it some time since.

"A baseball team will pay rent for grounds to play on—hand out money at the drug store for a ball—give the hardware store the price of a bat—fork over to the clothier the cash for a suit—lay down the coin for a pair of shoes—and then ask the newspaper to donate sufficient space to get a crowd out to see the game.

"A church society will give a chicken pie supper, dishing up a bunch of antiquated hen encas-d in indestructible crusts, and the newspapers give sufficient free advertising to bring out a crowd of customers. Mayby they say 'thank you,'

Its powerful reviving influence in the torpid liver brings on an immediate improvement. You feel better at once. and maybe they lay down a couple of tickets. In the latter case it is nine chances to one that when Mrs. Jones sees the editors approach, her nose curls into a pretzel and she says, spitefully, 'well, there comes deadhead Brown to sponge two meals off of the church.'

Newspapers Conforming to the Law

Washington — Twenty-two thousand newspapers and magazines throughout the United States have sent their statements of the names of editors, publishers, and stockholders to the Post Office Department, in accordance with the provisions of the new law requiring that such information be furnished the Government. Three-fourths of the entire number of papers have made returns.

Bermuda Industry Threatened

It is not unlikely that the Bermudan industry of growing Easter lilies for the countries of the world will be seriously affected by the introduction of the Philippine lily, which has a number of advantages over the Bermudan plant. The plants develop in one-third less time and grow more blooms on a plant and are much harder in many respects. They will also bloom repeatedly for several seasons. They can be grown with some success on the Pacific coast and have not yet shown symptoms of the diseases which the Bermuda lily is subject to.

KENTUCKY GOES 100,000

DEMOCRATIC

Elects Nine Congressmen Out of Eleven, Roosevelt Runs Second

Sweeping all opposition before them the democrats of Kentucky rolled up an enormous plurality for Wilson and Marshall, elected nine out of eleven congressmen, and carried the state by a handsome majority over opponents of the democratic presidential nominee. With practically complete returns from more than eighty out of 120 counties, Wilson has a plurality of over 85,000 votes, and indications are that fuller returns will show a plurality of over 100,000 votes.

He Was Literary.

"Colonel Brown seems to be very literary," remarked a visitor to the Brown household to the negro maid, glancing at a pile of magazines lying on the floor. "Yas, ma'am," replied the ebony-faced girl, "yas, ma'am, he sho'ly am literary. He jes' nat'ally littahs things all over dis year house."

Demand for Attar of Roses.
The fancy of society women for perfumes and especially for attar of roses has sent up the prices to the highest on record. Attar of roses, which is extremely rare and is perhaps the most valuable perfume in the market, now is commanding almost a prohibitive price. Despite the cost, however, the whim of women has taken to that as the rarest and most delicate of perfumes. Dealers in Fifth avenue, New York, say that they have the greatest difficulty in obtaining enough to supply the orders of their customers.

Norway's Water Power.
According to recent reports, the amount of water power which is in the way of preparation in Norway is 100,000 horsepower in addition to the existing 450,000 horse-power. Many large projects for the hydraulic work upon the large streams have been the subject of franchise granted during the last few years, and such work is now about finished. The hydraulic work on Mjosen is completed, and another enterprise on the Samnanger stream is soon to give the city of Bergen a large amount of electric current.
